Lord Jesus Christ, you tell us not to be afraid: challenge us to abandon ourselves, encourage us to risk the sacrifice that we may find the abundant life you promise; for you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, in the unity of the Blessed Trinity, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

READINGS
Genesis 21:8-21 Read by Wendyl Martin
Psalm 86:1-10, 16-17
Matthew 10:24-39 Proclaimed by Fr Mandla Sibeko

Hymn 1:

Will you come and follow me

1
Will you come and follow me
if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don’t know
and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown,
will you let my name be known,
will you let my life be grown in you and you in me?

2
Will you leave yourself behind
if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind
and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare should your life attract or scare, will you let me answer prayer
in you and you in me?

3
Will you love the ‘you’ you hide
if I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside
and never be the same?
Will you use the faith you’ve found to reshape the world around through my sight and touch and sound
in you and you in me?

Lord, your summons echoes true
when you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you where your love and footsteps show.
Thus I’ll move and live and grow
in you and you in me.

Hymn 2:

260 And now, O Father, mindful of the love

1 And now, O Father, mindful of the love that bought us, once for all, on Calvary’s tree, and having with us him that pleads above, we here present, we here spread forth to thee that only offering perfect in thine eyes, the one true, pure, immortal sacrifice.

2 Look, Father, look on his anointed face, and only look on us as found in him; look not on our misusings of thy grace, our prayer so languid, and our faith so dim: for lo, between our sins and their reward we set the Passion of thy Son our Lord.

3 And then for those, our dearest and our best, by this prevailing presence we appeal: O fold them closer to thy mercy’s breast, O do thine utmost for their souls’ true weal; from tainting mischief keep them white and clear, and crown thy gifts with strength to persevere.

4 And so we come: O draw us to thy feet, most patient Saviour, who canst love us still; and by this food, so aweful and so sweet, deliver us from every touch of ill: in thine own service make us glad and free, and grant us never more to part with thee.

Telephone Ministry
Sometimes we are aware of someone who would appreciate a prayer to comfort them in times of personal difficulties. I encourage you to use some of the prayers in the Anglican Prayer Book. Call your loved ones and pray any of these prayers found on page 496.

Lord of all grace and blessing, look with mercy on your servant N. Strengthen his faith, defend him against all evil, and keep him in peace and in the awareness of your loving presence, now and always. Amen

Heavenly Father, during his life on earth your Son Jesus Christ healed the sick and brought peace to those who were distressed and sorrowful. We commend to your loving care our brother N: grant him relief from pain and healing of body, mind and spirit; to those who are anxious about him give your peace and comfort; and to those who tend him give wisdom, skill and compassion; for the sake of Jesus Christ your Son our Saviour.
Amen

Prayer for Spiritual Communion
Jesus, may all that is in you flow into me. May your body and blood be my food and drink. May your passion and death be my strength and life. Jesus, with you by my side enough has been given. May the shelter I seek be the shadow of your cross. Let me not run from the love which you offer. But hold me safe from the forces of evil. On each of my dyings shed your light and your love. Keep calling to me until that day comes when, with your saints, I may praise you forever. Amen.
The Other Side of Fear

But for every one of the liberated prisoners, the day comes when, looking back on his camp experiences, he can no longer understand how he endured it all. As the day of his liberation eventually came, when everything seemed to him like a beautiful dream, so also the day comes when all his camp experiences seem to him nothing but a nightmare. The crowning experience of all, for the homecoming man, is the wonderful feeling that, after all he has suffered, there is nothing he need fear any more—except his God.
